

Believe

If you enter a challenge,
And you succeed.
There's only one thing you did,
And that was believe.

I helped along the way,
But you didn't listen.
I said "look at the sparkles above your head,
as they twinkle and glisten."

I watched as you stood,
with your head held up high.
You were proud of yourself,
and I know why.

You're a believer
You believe in yourself.
And I know one thing.
You're one little elf!
